

Join us for a FREE parent education session:

REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH 101 FOR PARENTS

Come and learn all the latest information on sexually transmitted infections, birth control and general reproductive health. It's never too early to start communicating with your kids about sex--we'll make it easier by teaching you everything you need to know!

When: Wednesday, February 17
6:00-8:00 p.m.

Where: NSU Brambleton Community Center
909 Marshall Avenue
Norfolk, VA 23504

Why:

- *1 in 4 teen girls has at least one STI
- *SE Virginia has the highest rate of STIs in the state
- *More than 750,000 teen girls will become pregnant this year
- *And most importantly....research overwhelmingly shows that kids WANT to talk to their parents about these issues!
- *More than 40% of teens have sex before they've talked with their parents about STIs or birth control
